Whitehall, June 22.

The following Addresses having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Portland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Earl of Shelburne, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens, of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens, of the City of Dublin, should feel ourselves extremely defective, if we omitted to express those Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection for your Majesty's Person and Government, which we have invariably possessed, and which the Circumstances of the present Period of Time peculiarly demand.

Your Majesty's Paternal Attention to the Wishes and Representations of this Kingdom, and your earnest Desire to remove all Cause of Discontent and Jealousy, are Proofs of your Majesty's Wisdom, and will strengthen the Constitutional Connexion between Great Britain and Ireland, so essential to the Interest and Happiness of both Nations.

And we think ourselves particularly called upon to acknowledge with Gratitude your Majesty's great Goodness and Attention to the Welfare of your Majesty's Subjects in this Kingdom, by appointing to the Chief Government of it his Grace the Duke of Portland; from whose just and wise Administration, as well as from the Wisdom and Integrity of your Majesty's present Ministers, we trust the British Empire will reap many great and important Advantages.

The recent and brilliant Successes of your Majesty's Arms give the highest Satisfaction to your faithful Subjects, among the foremost and sincerest of whom your Majesty will be pleased to rank the ancient, dutiful and loyal Corporation of the City of Dublin.

We with Pleasure look forward to the Prospect of Union and Happiness among your Majesty's Subjects of every Denomination; and hope that the perfect Establishment of all their Wishes may be completed by your Majesty's long reigning over a prosperous, free and grateful People.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Corporation Seal of the said City of Dublin to be hereunto affixed, this Eleventh Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and eighty two.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, assembled at the County Court at Kilmainham, on the 10th of June, 1782, William Fortick, Esq; Sheriff, in the Chair.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, firmly attached to your Royal Person, Family and Government, humbly beg Leave to tender our most grateful Acknowledgements to your Majesty for your Royal Goodness in graciously attending to the Wishes of your faithful People of Ireland, recently expressed in the Addresses of both Houses of our Parliament to your Majesty.

We humbly assure your Majesty, that we entertain a most lively Sense of the Justice and Wisdom of the British People towards their Fellow Subjects of Ireland; and it is with inexpressible Pleasure we can declare, that the Conduct of the British Parliament, disclaiming any Power or Authority whatsoever over this Kingdom, has laid the Foundation of an indissoluble Connection between Great Britain and Ireland, upon the only Basis which can possibly unite the two Countries, that of "equal Liberty and mutual "Interest." Thus happily leagued, the Foes of British Freedom will ever be considered by us as the Enemies of Irish Prosperity.

The late great Success of your Majesty's Arms in the East and West Indies has diffused general Joy throughout this Country. We indulge the pleasing Expectation, that the Restoration of the Rights of Ireland will be speedily followed by the Restoration of Britain's Glory.

Your Majesty's Determination to rule your People in the Manner most conducive to their Happiness, the Integrity and Wisdom of your Majesty's present Ministers, and the Spirit and Harmony of your Majesty's Subjects of these Countries, promise that the British Name will again be most honourably distinguished amongst the Nations of Europe.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we consider it as a strong Mark of your Majesty's Affection for your faithful Subjects of Ireland, that your Majesty has been graciously pleased to appoint the Duke of Portland to the Government of this Country, a Nobleman not less distinguished by his Attachment to your Majesty's Illustrious House than his Reverence for the Constitutional Rights of all his Fellow Subjects. And we are persuaded that his Grace's Administration will continue to be as highly beneficial to the People, as it already has been truly honourable to the Vice-Roy.

We conclude with this solemn Declaration, that we shall be as assiduous in promoting the Glory of your Majesty, and the Prosperity of Great Britain, as we have been zealous in asserting the Liberties of Ireland.

Wm. Fortick, Sheriff.
